IF you're after top-notch gourmet cuisine at very reasonable prices then look no further than Kozi Restaurant in Rainhill.

Opened on Station Road by ex-Everton FC footballer Tony Grant just three months ago, Kozi has already earned rave reviews from satisfied diners.

Perhaps that is because the experienced head chef uses only the finest fresh ingredients to prepare each of the sumptuous dishes.

Diners can choose from Kozi's terrific a la carte menu, their set menus or the lunchtime menus.

Among the most popular dishes on Kozi's a la carte menu is the diver-caught king scallops served with baby Bury black pudding and the fillet of Galloway beef.

And on the set menu the grilled rib-eye steak, vegetable risotto and Goosnargh chicken breast are particular favourites.

A two-course meal from the set menu costs just £11.95 each and a three-course meal is only £16.95.

At lunchtime, the traditional Lancashire lamb hotpot is very popular, as is the peppered beef served on rye toasted bread.

Kozi also serve up a traditional Sunday lunch every week between noon-5pm.

Starters such as soup, baby back ribs and mushrooms royale are followed by a fabulous main menu including a roast topside of beef, leg of Welsh lamb, loin of pork or garlic roasted cod.

And for those of you with any appetite remaining, the chef's surprise dessert is bound to finish you off!

For a three-course Sunday dinner, it will cost you just £13.95.

Kozi are available to stage wedding functions all year round too.

And their well-chosen wine list includes eclectic choices from the Lebanon and England as well as classics like New Zealand's Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc.

So to make a reservation at Kozi Restaurant, or to enquire about how you can book a wedding function there, give them a call now on 0151 430 7323.
