

Sounds of the summer

POP group Shaw Sounds are set to perform live at Blackbrook Working Men's Club this Saturday night (July 14).

And the following night vocalist Pod will be aiming to make a big impression.

Next weekend, regulars of the lively Summer Street venue will welcome singer Helen Kenny and a band called Freefall to centre stage.

Other acts set to perform live at Blackbrook Working Men's Club this month include tuneful trio Champagne and duo Close Down.

Elsewhere in Clubland, there will be a performance from a band called Riff Raff at Windle Labour Club this Saturday (July 14).

And on Sunday (July 15) an act called Double Trouble will hit the stage.

Next weekend, look out for performances from Touch Down and cabaret duo Picasso Moon.

Other acts set to perform at the popular Dentons Green Lane venue in July include singer Lee Martin and band V.I.A.

Jamaican legends

ONE of the legends of Jamaican music is heading to Liverpool, and we have two pairs of tickets to give away to Star readers.

Toots and the Maytals, who have been performing in one form or another since beginning their career at Studio One in 1962, play the Carling Academy 2 Liverpool on Wednesday 25 July.

Toots Hibbert is one of the great voices of Jamaica - a man whose career spans every development in Jamaican music, from ska through rock-steady to reggae.

Toots and his band have helped to chart the course of Jamaican music with their unrivalled delivery and dynamism, setting new standards of excellence, and becoming the most enduring of all Jamaica's groups.

Tickets cost £18.50 in advance and are available from www.ticketweb.co.uk or 0870 771 2000.

To be in with a chance of winning a pair of tickets, simply answer this question.

In which Jamaican city was Toots and the Maytals formed? Answers, including name, address and if possible email address, to Mike Critchley, Toots Competition, St Helens Star, 23a Hardshaw Street, St Helens, WA10 1RT. For more information log onto: www.tootsandthemaytals.net

Memories galore at exhibition

A NEW exhibition harking back to family life through the decades is sure to bring back fond memories for visitors to The World of Glass.

'The Generation Game', will feature rooms decorated with period furniture, showing the change in people's family lives, from the tin bath in front of the fire to Bakelite TVs from the 50s.

Curator Rosemary Tyler said: "The displays and room settings feature items that really evoke the flavour of each decade and we're sure many visitors will have the fun of rediscovering things from their own childhood."

The exhibition opens on Tuesday, July 24 and will run until Sunday, September 2.
