our pick of the next seven days' TV viewing

You Can Choose Your Friends
ITV1 9pm Thursday

This warm and witty comedy explores the humour and tension of family life. It revolves around the 45th wedding anniversary celebrations of devoted couple Ken and Margaret Snell. As three generations of the family converge on the family home, issues as trivial as the fluffiness of towels and as serious as infidelity and sibling rivalry, threaten to shatter the fragile accord.

Bus Pass Workaholics
Channel 4 10pm Monday

This film features some of the 1.2 million-strong 'secret workforce' of people working past the retirement age in Britain. Compulsory retirement may be a thing of the past, but why are so many pensioners choosing to continue working? Living longer on inadequate pensions mean that many have to work to pay the bills. But for others the story is more complicated.

Lewis Hamilton: The Story So Far
ITV1 4.25pm Saturday

Steve Rider looks at the incredibly bright start to Lewis Hamilton's Formula One career. Hamilton, 22, jointly leads the World Championship alongside double world champion Fernando Alonso after only his fifth grand prix, having finished on the podium in every race so far in 2007. Formula One stars past and present reflect on the reasons for Hamilton's success.

24 Hours With...
ITV1 10pm Monday

It's a chat show like no other. 24 Hours With... provides an innovative twist on the traditional chat show as celebrity and interviewer spend an intense 24 hours locked in a room together. First to leave his mobile phone and PR advisers at the door is former 80s legend Bobby Brown. In this new format host Jamie Campbell can ask him whatever he likes...

Britain's Got Talent
ITV1 9.25pm Saturday

ITV's new series reunites Ant & Dec and Simon Cowell. And this time they are on a unique search for an exceptional act to perform in front of Her Majesty The Queen at this year's Royal Variety Performance. Simon heads the judging panel and is joined by actress Amanda Holden and ex-journalist and author Piers Morgan. Their quest is to find Britain's top talent.

Tough Gig
ITV1 10pm Tuesday

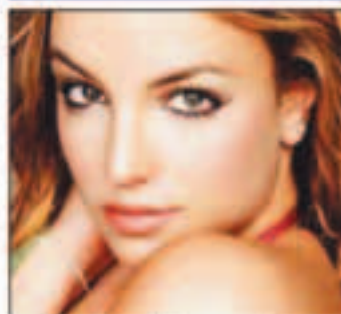

Tough Gig follows one of six comics plucked from their day-to-day lives and totally immersed into a new world, where they will live, work, sleep and socialise. The series will also offer an insight into some of the most fascinating and often unknown communities. In the first episode Frank Skinner takes up 'commune living' at a specialist new-age retreat in Dorset.

The South Bank Show
ITV1 10.45pm Sunday

Jarvis Cocker, the charismatic former front man of Pulp, is one of Britain's best-loved musicians and cultural icons - he's the man behind such legendary songs as Common People and the subject of The South Bank Show. Melvyn Bragg meets him in Paris to talk about song-writing, politics, his ambivalent attitude towards fame and what he likes about his new life.

Britney: Off The Rails
Channel 4 10pm Wednesday

In February this year, Britney Spears shocked her fans and the media by shaving her head in full view of the paparazzi. Was she having a breakdown, or was it just a PR stunt? So far nobody has been able to answer this question. This film traces the history of Britney's love/hate relationship with the press and her struggle with her public image during her career as America's pop princess.
