WARRINGTON Guardian Series Newspapers and the Paddington House Hotel are pleased to announce a Wedding Fair this Sunday, March 4, noon until 4pm.

The Paddington House hotel, Padgate, is the setting for this spectacular event which includes two bridal fashion shows and a wide range of exhibitors to help you organise your wedding using the best possible services and products.

These leading wedding specialists will be delighted to meet you and give you the benefit of their expertise whether it be photography, floral displays, chauffeur-driven cars, chocolate fountains and many other services.

Entry to the event is free. There is also free parking and all brides-to-be will be given a free copy of the Wedding Book 2007.

Whether you are just beginning to plan your wedding or are looking for some finishing touches, you will find everything you need to create the wedding of your dreams.

At the Paddington House Hotel, the wedding facilities are second to none with each reception tailored to individual needs. The hotel is the ideal setting for your wedding regardless of its style or size.

Whether this be a champagne reception in the beautifully landscaped gardens or the Oakley bar for an informal finger buffet, they will ensure your day is a happy and memorable one.

Civil weddings are available at the hotel as well.

Their menus and buffets offer a multitude of dishes and styles that allow you to design the menu you want.

To make your day extra special, the hotel provides some magical finishing touches.

They include:

● Red carpet on arrival with champagne reception.

● Choice of bridal suite – choose from two elegant four-poster suites, ensuring a romantic end to a perfect day.

● Complimentary bottle of champagne – ice cold and waiting for you at the end of the night.

● Colour co-ordination – choose from many different shades of napkins used with crisp white linen to decorate the tables your chosen theme.

● A toastmaster – let the hotel's management guide you through the day, presiding over your reception, announcing the arrival of the bride and groom to the table, then skilfully taking the gentlemen of the top table through those all-important speeches.

● Discounted accommodation – any guests who may wish to stay at the hotel have the opportunity to take advantage of discounted wedding rates.

There are three suites available for weddings depending on the size of your party:

● The Paddington Suite, recently refurbished, is perfect for the larger wedding breakfast or evening reception. The suite accommodates parties from 50 to 200 and is complemented by its own reception and entrance foyer areas.

● The Regency Suite makes a superb venue for small to medium sized weddings.

The room has views of the hotel's extensive landscaped grounds and French windows lead to a paved patio area. The suite accommodates parties of up to 50 and is particularly suitable for civil weddings.

● The Woolston Suite is an intimate wood panelled suite is suited for the small civil wedding and can accommodate up to six guests. This suite makes a delightful alternative to traditional function room facilities.

Let Pauline transform you into a dream bride

PAULINE Hughes, owner of Paris Bridal by Bows 'n' Belles has the experience and talent to make every woman become a beautiful bride, no matter what her age or build.

With 30 years' experience behind her including several years as a designer, Pauline has the knack of knowing exactly what will work for each bride.

Her commitment to each customer is total. Every woman is treated as an individual and nothing is too much trouble for Pauline. Brides from size eight to 30 will find their dream dress with Pauline's skills.

Pauline said: "Some girls don't know where to start but we look after them all the way, from the first fitting right up to the day itself. We give them the confidence to try on something they might not have considered before."

A range of Paris Bridal accessories including veils, headresses and jewellery gives Pauline's brides a tasteful, co-ordinated look.

After working for many years as a designer, Pauline established her own shop in Widnes five years ago, later setting up a second shop in Warrington's Hatters' Row.

Each year she travels all over the world to bring the cream of the bridal collections back to her shops. Among the top designers you will find at Paris Bridal are Constantina and La Sposa.

Clients can choose from a large diverse range of gowns from the very simple and elegant to sophisticated designer specials.

But it is not only wedding gowns in which Pauline specialises.

In tandem with Paris Bridal is Paris Couture, also in Hatters' Row, which stocks mother of the bride outfits, prom dresses, evening-wear, a day at the races outfits and special occasion wear.

Pauline puts an emphasis on making sure her mother of the bride outfits are adaptable and can be worn for other occasions after the wedding.

For male members of the wedding party, a suit hire service is available.

You can see some of Paris Bridal and Paris Couture's wonderful clothes at the two fashion shows during the bridal show at the Paddington House Hotel on Sunday.

Each show lasts between 45 minutes and one hour when 20 to 30 bridal gowns will be modelled as well as mother of the bride outfits and bridesmaids' dresses.
