The perfect venue

WARRINGTON Guardian Series Newspapers and the Lymm Hotel are pleased to announce a Wedding Fair this Sunday, March 25. The event starts at noon and continues until 4pm.

Whether you are just beginning to plan your wedding or are looking for some final touches to the day, you are sure to find something of interest at this entertaining and enjoyable event. There will be a fashion show featuring bridesmaids dresses – courtesy of Debenhams.

Entry is free to everyone including, of course, prospective brides and grooms, friends and relatives.

To help you plan your big day, leading wedding specialists will be on hand to help and advise you with the benefit of their expertise.

During the fair, the hotel's function rooms will be available to view so that prospective couples can visualise how their special day will look.

With the Cheshire Suite being fully air conditioned and equipped with its own bar and moveable dance floor, it also has access to the picturesque gardens and the Bridgewater Restaurant is ideal for smaller wedding receptions with up to 70 guests.

There will also be more than 18 exhibitors from some of the leading wedding specialists in the area which will include Debenhams, jewellery collections, flowers and photography to name but a few.

There will also be a free prize draw with some great prizes. They include Sunday lunch for four at the Lymm Hotel, free facial from Bodyshop at Home, 50 per cent discount voucher for the Cheshire Tiara Company, 25 per cent discount for Flight of Fancy Wedding Cars, free makeover and gift set from Bodyshop at Home, either a full set of acrylic nails, a spray tanning session or a reiki session from Busy Hands Nails and Beauty (worth £25), nightwear set from Ann Summers worth £18, meal for two and a bottle of wine from the Agency Bar and Grill, membership of Slimming World plus many more.

If you are thinking about having a Cheshire wedding, the choice of venue doesn't need to cause a problem. The Lymm Hotel on Whitbarrow Road provides the perfect setting for wedding breakfasts and evening receptions as well as being licensed to hold civil ceremonies in both its Cheshire Suite and Bridgewater Restaurant.

Finishing touches to the wedding package at Lymm Hotel include free room hire if you hold your wedding breakfast and evening reception at the hotel and ensure the minimum attendance. The bride and groom will also be treated to one of the executive rooms on their wedding night.

The Lymm Hotel has an atmosphere of warmth, friendliness and well-being. For more information about weddings at Lymm Hotel, visit the website at www.lymmhotel.com or call 01925 752233.

on your dream day

A hassle-free gift list - courtesy of Debenhams

PLANNING a wedding is a huge job - but it's not all hard work and no play! Couples can enjoy compiling their gift list together with Debenhams which aims to make the whole experience as stress-free as possible.

During the Lymm Hotel Wedding Fair, prospective couples will have plenty of opportunity to discuss their gift list with one of Debenhams' representatives.

The service will be available in the new Warrington store and it is recommended that you register your details at least four months in advance. You can register online at www.debenhams.com/weddings or in store.

Once a couple's list is registered, their guests can buy online, in store or via Debenhams' dedicated call centre

Debenhams says it is important to give guests plenty of time to choose and buy a gift - after all, you don't want six toasters!

The latest a list should be made is six weeks before the wedding, and three months ahead is ideal to ensure the best of the season's gifts.

When making a list, couples should treat it as a wish list - thinking about updating any existing home-ware and including any gifts they've always wanted.

They should also make sure they have enough gifts for their guests to choose from.

It's better to have too much on it than too little! A wide selection of prices should also be included as friends and family may choose to club together to purchase a large item.

Debenhams also recommends making an appointment to scan the bridal list using its hi-tech scanners.

You'll need a 90-minute appointment with a wedding service advisor to make your list.

Simply swipe the price tags of your chosen products, while browsing around the store for an instant individualised wedding list.

Your list is then held for your guests to buy from in any of three ways: on touch-screens in stores nationwide, via the Internet or via the call-centre. Late nights and weekends are popular, so book well in advance.

When the bride and groom have made their list, they'll be given cards for guests, telling them their unique gift list number, where the list is held and about the gift wrap and delivery service.

Couples can also keep right up to date with the progress of their wedding gift list by using the List Manager online, or at an in store touch screen.

They can amend it and check on purchases made. It stays open for four weeks after the wedding.

A £50 gift card will be presented to couples when they have completed their list which they will be able to spend in any Debenhams store or online.

Once registered with Debenhams Wedding Service, they will also receive a pack of special offers and promotions to help them save money on fashions, accessories and cosmetics.
