The perfect venue for your marriage

WARRINGTON Guardian Series Newspapers and the Lymm Hotel are pleased to announce a Wedding Fair this Sunday, January 21 from noon to 4pm. Whether you are just beginning to plan your wedding or are looking for some final touches to the day, you are sure to find something of interest at this entertaining and enjoyable event. Entry is free to everyone including prospective brides and grooms, friends and relatives.

To help you plan your big day leading wedding specialists will be on hand to help and advise you with the benefit of their expertise.

Two fashion shows will be held at 1pm. and 3pm., staged by JulieAnne's of Cheshire, Wearhouse Menswear and Cloud 9 bridal wear.

Between the two shows you will be entertained with a dance display by members of the Silhouette Dance Club from St Helens, which takes place at 2pm.

During the fair, the hotel's function rooms will be available to view so that prospective brides and grooms can visualise how their special day will look. There will also be more than 25 exhibitors from some of the leading wedding specialists in the area which will include bridalwear, jewellery collections, cars, hairstyling, photography, make-up and confectionery.

So why not make a note in your diary for what promises to be a wonderful day?

Stars for the day!

If you're thinking about having a Cheshire wedding the choice of venue doesn't need to cause a problem. Lymm Hotel provides the perfect setting for wedding breakfasts and evening receptions as well as being licensed to hold civil ceremonies in both its Cheshire Suite and Bridgewater Restaurant. Finishing touches to the wedding package at Lymm Hotel include free room hire if you hold your wedding breakfast and evening reception at the hotel, and ensure the minimum attendance, and the bride and groom will be treated to one of the executive rooms on their wedding night.

With the Cheshire Suite being fully air-conditioned and equipped with its own bar and moveable dance floor it also has easy access to the picturesque gardens, and the Bridgewater Restaurant is ideal for smaller wedding receptions with up to 70 guests.

With 62 bedrooms there is plenty of space for guests to make it a weekend to remember allowing you to enjoy breakfast together the following morning. If it's your dream to walk down the red carpet on your wedding day, staff at the Lymm Hotel will greet you on arrival as you receive the star treatment and the hotel can also provide a master of ceremonies to act as toastmaster for the occasion.

The Lymm Hotel has an atmosphere of warmth, friendliness and well-being.

January 21~ noon to 4pm

SIMPLICITY is the key to weddings in 2007 with crisp bright white making a resurgence. Earthy tones will also be popular as 2006 saw browns teamed with pink and cream and this year brides will be adding mint and sky blue into the mix as well, according to www.hitched.co.uk. Guests providing special requests for DJs ahead of time so that their favourite songs can be incorporated into the day will be popular and a choreographed first dance is something to think about. How about mini roast beef and Yorkshire puddings as canapés or fruit coulis fountains instead of chocolate fountains? Or maybe a laser show could replace the standard firework display? The list of things to do before the big day will seem to grow longer every time you look at it. Here are a few ideas as to what you should be thinking about. And remember, these are just suggestions and not essential requirements for every wedding:

- Venue – ceremony and reception
- Guest list
- Bridesmaids
- Best Man
- Ushers
- Bride's dress, shoes, jewellery, lingerie
- Men's suits
- Wedding rings
- Stationery – Invitations, menus, orders of service, place settings
- Wedding breakfast menu and drinks
- Wedding gift list
- Photography
- Videography
- Flowers
- Cars
- Cake
- Table decorations
- Entertainment and music
- Bridal favours

- Room for wedding night
- Going away outfit
- Honeymoon

The average cost of a wedding is between £12,000 and £14,000, which if you're financing the big day yourselves can be a worry. If you have a limited budget with not much room for adding extras, then make sure you know exactly how much you can spend on each section of the wedding. A good quality designer wedding dress can set you back £4,000 while a second hand outfit (which has probably only been worn once) can be scooped up for £100. It all depends on what you want and whether you can afford it.

YOUR son or daughter getting married is such a special day you want everything down to the smallest detail just right. It is every mothers worst nightmare for someone else to turn up at the wedding wearing the same outfit. JulieAnne's of Cheshire offers an exclusive collection for the mother of the bride or groom which is not available in the department stores or on the high streets. The elegant dresses with matching jackets are breathtakingly lovely and the designs offer a stylish and classic feel with delicate detailing and the most exquisite quality. Available in sizes 8 to 20 in a fabulous array of colours, they are amazing to wear with soft feminine fabrics and flattering to the figure. JulieAnne's offer a personal service by appointment with a relaxed and friendly approach.
